

New Instrumental Music CD "Good Dogs, Bad Dogs, Best Friends" Captures Memories of Beloved Canine Companions

Los Angeles, CA, Dec. 10 – Each piece on the new instrumental music CD "Good Dogs, Bad Dogs, Best Friends" captures a memory of a beloved canine companion.

From pastoral sketches to chases, rock & roll-over to wagtime, these unique and uplifting songs share the joy, the laughter, and the challenges of caring for a four-legged family member.

In the 24-page, full-color booklet, five accomplished musicians -- Stephen Bennett, Joe Morgan, Carter Lancaster, Brad Hoyt and Frank Doucett -- join acclaimed harp guitarist Gregg Miner in reminiscing about their favorite pups, tell the stories behind the music, and share photos of the dogs.

A portion of the CD's proceeds will go to the Search Dog Foundation in Ojai, CA.

The CD is produced by Miner and his wife Jaci Rohr, owner of the online store Two Little Dogs. The CD can be purchased at TwoLittleDogs.com, HarpGuitarMusic.com, and also Amazon.com.

About the Producers

Gregg Miner is an accomplished musician. On his Christmas CD alone, he played over 100 instruments. He is a collector of rare harp guitars and runs the Harp Guitar Foundation. You may have heard his music on National Geographic Channel's Dog Whisperer with Cesar Millan.

Jaci Rohr is a Hollywood costumer and also runs the online store Two Little Dogs, which sells "presents for pets... and their people too." Additionally, she works in product development for Cesar Millan, Inc.

About the Search Dog Foundation

The National Disaster Search Dog Foundation is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-governmental organization based in Ojai, CA. Their mission is to strengthen disaster response in America by recruiting rescued dogs and partnering them with firefighters and other first responders to find people buried alive in the wreckage of disasters.
