Grossman to Camera	GROSSMAN: Hello, my name is Scott Grossman. In 2004, I established the Grossman Law Firm, offering injured victims the highest level of legal representation throughout New Jersey. My goal was to create a special kind of legal practice where the client is the focus, receiving an aggressive force of legal representation as well as service with compassion and integrity. Here's a look at my practice.

B-ROLL:  - Grossman speaking in court	VO:  Dealing with insurance companies in the state of New Jersey is a difficult and confusing undertaking. Insurance companies are large corporations who are rarely on the side of those they actually insure. Rather, insurance companies are concerned most with the bottom line, their shareholders, and their extremely well-paid executives. I have never represented insurance companies. I have dedicated my practice to protecting the rights of the seriously injured by arming myself with the law and knowing it in all of its intricacies.
